The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) does not make election code changes every year. This cover page exists to identify any changes that may have occurred with election codes as well as call out important reminders. It is not recommended to download this resource since it can change without notice. The version date is always reflected in the bottom right corner.

When using the paper application: Not all Special Election Periods (SEPs) are listed. If you have a client eligible for a SEP not on the application, please write the applicable three-character code found in this document in the space indicated in this screenshot to the right.

ICEP	IEP	AEP	OEP	OEP	OEPI	SEP
MA or MAPD	PDP or MAPD			NEW CODE†

(See Additional Notes page)
†Required if SEP selected. See page 4 for code.

IMPORTANT:

- One (1) SEP is only for use via paper application because it requires inclusion of supporting pre-authorization from CMS.
- Six (6) SEPs are only for use by CMS and are here for informational purposes.

NEW ADDITION TO THIS DOCUMENT: An Appendix has been added on page 16 with examples of questions that might be used to determine eligibility for certain Special Election Periods and other election periods.

REMINDER:

With the exception of AEP, all other election codes are one-time-use as outlined for each scenario. Unlike AEP, which is last application submitted, use of all other election periods is first application submitted". If a beneficiary has "buyer's remorse" before the effective date, best practice is for the beneficiary to contact the plan to cancel the submitted enrollment application to use that election code used for a different plan enrollment.

NEW FOR 2023 - SPECIFIC TO MEDICARE PARTS A & B:

Per Medicare and You 2023, beginning January 1, 2023, consumers who missed enrolling in Medicare when eligible due to special circumstances may be able to sign up for Medicare during a Special Enrollment Period. Consumers should contact Medicare for more information.

Also beginning January 1, 2023, CMS has changed the General Enrollment Period. The General Enrollment Period is still from January 1 - March 31 each year, however the Medicare coverage will begin the month following Medicare enrollment. Previously the Medicare effective date was July 1.

NOTABLE:

- To be eligible to use OEP/OEP-New (page 4), a beneficiary must be active in a Medicare Advantage plan. They may make one change to another Medicare Advantage plan or may return to Original Medicare (with or without a PDP) annually January 1 - March 31 and within the three (3) month window that begins with the date of Medicare Entitlement.
- Beneficiaries with Medicaid and/or Low Income Subsidy (Extra Help) (pages 9-10) and not experienced a change in subsidy status have a SEP to make one plan change per quarter for the first three quarters of each year. Usage of the SEP is based on application date during Jan.-Mar., Apr.-June, and July-Sept. Beneficiaries deemed "potential at-risk" or "at-risk" for certain medication abuse are NOT eligible to use this SEP.
- 5-Star Rated Plans for Plan Year 2023 (page 11) - Humana contracts H0292 (3) HMO plans in Northern Kentucky, H1951 (24) HMO plans in Louisiana, and H4461 (16) HMO plans in Tennessee.
- There is a Consistently Poor Performing Plan for 2023 which is contract H2793 from Imperial Insurance Companies, Inc. in TEXAS (page 12).
